No. 322.

By Command of HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, the Offg. Chief Commissioner has been desired to make known to HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA, to the Members of the State and Public Reception Committees, to the Regiments and Public Bodies which have testified their loyalty to HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS by making special preparations for his reception, and to the people of Mysore generally, that HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS looked forward to his projected tour in the Province with especial pleasure, and that he abandoned it with very great regret, mainly in consequence of the knowledge that the large concourse of people who would doubtless have assembled to welcome HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS must necessarily have incurred very great risk of a fresh outbreak of the disease which has recently been prevalent in Bangalore and some other parts of the country.
